What is EIP?
The Early Intervention Program is designed to serve students who are ‘at risk’ of not reaching or maintaining academic grade level performance.

What is the purpose of EIP?
The purpose of EIP is to provide additional resources to help students who are performing below grade level to obtain necessary academic skills in order to reach grade level performance.

How was my child selected for EIP services?
Your child was selected based on several different forms of data. These include STAR assessments, checklists, GKIDS, GA Milestones scores, teacher observations, EIP rubrics, student work portfolios, RTI recommendations, and local assessments.

How can my child exit the EIP program?
Two measures are used for grades K-5 OR grades 3-5 students who score at/above the Proficient level on the Georgia Milestones Tests in reading or mathematics. These measures include STAR assessments, checklists, GKIDS, GA Milestones scores, teacher observations, EIP rubrics, student work portfolios, RTI recommendations, and local assessments.

How will I know if my child is exiting the EIP program?
Students who exit the EIP program will receive a letter stating this information.

Is my child’s EIP teacher certified?
Yes, EIP teachers are certified teachers who specialize in using strategies to help meet student needs where gaps exist in the areas of Reading/Language Arts and Math.
How many segments of services will my child receive?
Your child can receive up to 2 segments— one for reading and one for math. Students in K-3 will receive 45 minutes per segment and students in grades 4-5 will receive 50 minutes per segment.

Are ESOL students eligible for EIP services?
Yes, ESOL students can participate in the EIP program.

Should EIP services be supplemental instruction or can it be in place of regular classroom instruction?
EIP instruction must be in addition to and different from regular classroom instruction.

Who do I contact if I have additional questions about the EIP program?
You can email tprice@rockdale.k12.ga.us or jmckay@rockdale.k12.ga.us. You can also reach out to your child’s assigned EIP teacher:
